

Inclusion in sport

Organizations leading the way to support the inclusion of women, girls and 2SLGBTQI+ individuals in sport

If you know of any organizations that you think should be added to this list, please send them to research@sirc.ca.

Athlete Ally: Athlete Ally aims to ensure that everyone has equal access, opportunity, and experience in sports regardless of their gender expression, gender identity or sexual orientations. The organization is working to end homophobia and transphobia in sport and is a champion for 2SLGBTQI+ equality in sport. <https://www.athleteally.org/>

Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport (CCES): The CCES is a leader when it comes to inclusion in sport. The CCES website has a variety of resources to support inclusion and safe sport. This includes resources to support Trans inclusion. <https://cces.ca>

Canadian Olympic Committee (COC): The COC is working to promote inclusion in Canadian sport. The COC has resources, such as One Team, which aim to create safer sport and school environments for 2SLGBTQI+ individuals. <https://olympic.ca/education/resources/oneteam/>

Canadian Women and Sport (CWS): Canadian Women and Sport is a leader in promoting gender equity and research in the Canadian sport sector. Canadian Women and Sport has a variety of evidence-based resources to help make sport more inclusive for women, girls and 2SLGBTQI+ athletes and coaches. <https://womenandsport.ca/resources/publications/leading-the-way/>

Egale Canada: Egale is a leading organization for 2SLGBTQI+ inclusion in Canada. The Egale Canada website contains resources, research and tools to support awareness. <https://egale.ca>

Fast and Female: Fast and Female is an organization working to empower women and girls in sport. The Fast and Female website contains a variety of resources to empower female athletes. The organization also offers programs to help women and girls play sports. <https://fastandfemale.com/programs/>

Pride Sports: Pride sport is an organization working to improve the sport experiences of 2SLGBTQI+ people by providing education and promoting good and safe sport practices. <https://pridesports.org.uk/about/>

Pride Tape: Pride Tape was made to show support for 2SLGBTQI+ hockey players. Its goal is to create more inclusive environment for players, their families and fans of every race, colour, religion, national origin, gender, age, sexual orientation, socio-economic status as well as those with disabilities. <http://pridetape.com/>

Sport Information Resource Centre (SIRC): SIRC is a leader in research and knowledge mobilization in the sport sector. SIRC is working to provide evidence-based information and resources that support inclusion and safe sport in the Canadian sport sector. <https://sirc.ca/>

Sport Inclusion Task Force: The Sport Inclusion Task Force is working to end 2SLGBTQI+ bias in sport. To achieve this, the task force provides education and promotion of 2SLGBTQI+ inclusion in Canadian sport. Its website contains resources and news pieces that cover 2SLGBTQI+ issues in Canada. <https://sportinclusion.ca/>

TRANSATHLETE.com: Transathlete.com contains resources and information about Trans inclusion in sport for all levels of competition. This site acts as a resource hub to ensure that key resources are easy to find. <https://www.transathlete.com/>

ViaSport BC: viaSport BC is working to make amateur sport better for all athletes. The organization has a variety of resources to support equity, diversity and inclusion and provide opportunities for coach education. <https://viasport.ca>