

TERMS AND CONDITIONS – POSTING NEWS

1. Purpose

- a. These Terms and Conditions identify how not-for-profit organizations involved in the development of sport in Canada can post to SIRC's daily news service. For-profit organizations using the news service may be subject to additional costs.
- b. The intent of the daily news is to help the Canadian not for profit sport and physical activity sector to promote sport and physical activity throughout Canada.

2. Posting News

- a. News posted to SIRC's daily news service are intended to be sport and physical activity related.
- b. The individual or organization that posts the news piece agrees to post only news pieces that meet the standards, rules and regulations as governed by their province/jurisdiction and/or the Government of Canada.

3. Removal and Modification

- a. SIRC reserves the right to accept, refuse or remove any news listing.
- b. SIRC reserves the right to modify and/or cancel the SIRC Daily news service at its discretion.
- c. SIRC reserves the right to update, modify and/or change available resources at its discretion.

4. Liability and Accuracy

- a. SIRC distributes the news however is not responsible for the content, accuracy, or quality of each news submission. The content is the responsibility of the posting organization.

5. Contact

- a. If you have any questions regarding posting your news, you can contact us by e-mail at info@sirc.ca or by phone at +1 (613) 231-7472.