Self-identification by candidates is completely voluntary.

Responsibilities

- Collaborate with National Team Next Gen Head coaches in delivering high-quality training sessions and programs for the Summer Next Gen Beach Volleyball National Program.
- Assist in the development and implementation of training plans tailored to the needs of individual athletes and the program as a whole.
- Provide constructive feedback and guidance to athletes during training sessions and competitions.
- Support the coaching staff in creating a positive and supportive training environment that fosters growth and development.
- Help monitor and track the progress of athletes throughout the training period.

Requirements

- Previous volleyball coaching experience at a provincial level, with beach coaching being preferred.
- Strong understanding of beach volleyball techniques, strategies, and training methods.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to work effectively with athletes, coaches, and support staff.
- Demonstrated commitment to athlete development and the pursuit of excellence.
- Availability to work part-time from May 21st to August 31st, 2025, in Toronto, Ontario. Mainly day-time hours with some weekend events.
- Must be able to pass a vulnerable sector police check and provide proof of relevant coaching certifications.

Application Process

Interested candidates are invited to submit their resume and a brief cover letter outlining their coaching experience and motivation for joining the Summer Next Gen Beach Volleyball National Team coaching staff. Please send your application to Jamie Dorian: jdorian@volleyball.ca . This position will be open until it is filled.

Join us in shaping the future of Canadian beach volleyball and helping our athletes reach their full potential on the world stage! We look forward to receiving your application.

Sincerely,
